My dear Marian

Just a line to send you our wishes for your Birthday. I wonder what you did - anything special. Where are you now & where are you to be at Xmas.

Love from Millie
